

The Daily Market Report

PORTLAND, March 30.—Advices from Los Angeles report an advance in cabbage prices. The last car reported here from that place is held at $4 and the cabbage market generally is strong.

The steamer today brought in the usual assortment of green stuff from the South. New radishes are quoted at 33 cents a pound, parsley at 30 cents, chloery at 35, artichokes at 80 cents a dozen and peas at 12 1/2 to 15 cents a pound.

Two more cars of Florid tomatoes reported on the way to this market. The first car that came was reported selling freely at $3.50 a crate.

Eggs Steady; Cleaning Up. Poultry dealers reported a strong demand for broilers and fryers, with the supply generally short. For other poultry there is a fair demand at prices of the past few weeks, and complaint is heard of stocks accumulating.

Pork and veal moved in a satisfactory way today, the supply being about sufficient for the demand.

Butter Drops to 32 Cents. The expected decline in butter prices came today, when city creamerymen quoted their best brands at 32 cents a pound. The coast butter situation generally has been weakening for some time, due to the usual spring increase in the cream supply.

Country creamery is now quoted at 32 to 32 cents. At present prices city creamery is selling two cents a pound higher than at this time a year ago.

There was nothing new in the recent trade today. The supply is still very meager and prices are firm.

Local Market is Unchanged. The local grain market was firm and unchanged on all lines. At Liverpool both May and July wheat scored gain of half a penny, while quotations at Chicago were a shade lower than the finish.

The Merchants' Exchange reported receipts as follows: Wheat 4 cars, rye 2 cars, flour 8 cars, oats 3 cars, 19 cars.

WIRELESS BUSINESS.

NEW YORK, March 30.—Some interesting facts concerning wireless telegraphy were brought out in the balance sheet of the Marconi Company of America, of January 31, 1909. The Secretary says: Receipts for short distance, i. e., shore to ship within a radius of 300 miles, show an increase of about $5,000 in gross but on the other hand receipts for long distance transmission have fallen off considerably, partly because some of the steamship lines could not under the depressing circumstances, afford the luxury of daily news for their passengers and partly because our long distance receipts depend to a great extent on the traveling public.
